

Swansea Market & The Mumbles

Wed. 26th April
£18.00

Swansea Market, with over 100 stalls is an award winning market and the largest indoor market in Wales. There are over 100 stalls offering everything from fresh local produce to traditional Welsh gifts. Sample the famous cockles, laver-bread and fine Welsh cheeses. And of course, no visit would be complete without a bag of hot Welsh cakes, served fresh from the griddle.

We will also visit the beautiful area that is The Mumbles. The beginning of the Gower Peninsula's coastline. A well-loved area of Swansea where you can visit the pier and treat yourself to fish & chips !

Gloucester Docks

Thurs. 22nd June
£12.00

The former dock estate has become a popular destination where visitors can enjoy a range of modern facilities while wandering around a remarkably complete example of a Victorian port. Fine warehouses and other dock-related buildings have found new uses. There are now visiting narrow boats, smart motor cruisers and the occasional yacht or tall ship. To the south of the main docks area is the Gloucester Quays designer outlet centre which has an outstanding mix of high street and designer labels at up to 60% off recommended retail prices.

Fancy tasting the ales on offer at the micro brewery, or just enjoy the cafes and restaurants?... the choice is yours.

Llandudno

Wed. 19th July
£16.00

Llandudno, with its immaculate seafront, gracefully framed by two headlands, is a seaside classic. It has amazing Blue Flag beaches, the cable cars, and a fascinating conservation zoo. Mighty big mountains and green valleys are a big attraction as are some amazing restaurants and pubs . Few things say 'seaside' quite like a stroll along a pier, and Llandudno Pier is a real gem! With its Grade II listed status, it's a traditional seaside pier dating from the late 1800s with an array of shops, cafes, bars and attractions – offering fun for everyone.

Always a firm favourite as a seaside resort, you'd be wise to book early for this one !
